

Certificate of excellence

I here by acknowledge and appreciate that Koshish charitable trust is a group of motivated trained and committed social activists. This group has a clear vision as well as program implementing ability of social development and change. Transparency accountability and sacrifice are the main assets of this group.

I personally have the privilege to work on many occasion with them and every time, I felt in my self motivation and drive. Specially I got their support in implementing education, S G S Y,SHG sakh and dairy Program as a block development officer of Khusrupur . Till date my experience with many group, I found them excellent. I wish them to work on larger scale and hope they will get every support from every corner in their positive contribution towards society.
